TO-MORROW MORNING

Our silk and dress-goods buyer has just returned from New York, having spent many days of hard labor selecting the choicest productions from the foreign and domestic manufacturers of silks and dress goods. To what extent his labor has been successful we will leave for you to say. It has been our great effort to obtain styles and patterns not shown by any other house—styles exclusively our own. In this we have succeeded by a special arrangement with the importers, and the result will be demonstrated at our covarious sale to morrow.
